

Apply for a scholarship through The Risk Management Association Foundation Scholarship Program

The Risk Management Association Foundation offers scholarships to students in an undergraduate program who are interested in working in the banking industry after graduation.

About the Scholarships

The Risk Management Association Foundation offers scholarships to students in an undergraduate program who are interested in working in the banking industry after graduation. The RMA Foundation is awarding over $200,000 annually in scholarships ranging from $1,500 to $8,000. Winners may reapply for continuation of their scholarships for up to two additional years, provided each student fulfills the renewal requirements and maintains their free student membership with RMA.

As a not-for-profit, member-driven professional association, RMA promotes a community of like-minded banking professionals who share ideas and experiences to advance the use of sound risk management principles in the financial services industry.

Who can apply?

Applicants must meet all of the following criteria:

- Be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States or Canada.
- Be current sophomores or juniors who are enrolled in a full-time undergraduate course of study at an accredited four-year college or university in the United States or Canada and will continue to be enrolled full-time for the entire 2021-2022 academic year.
- Have an intent to work in the banking industry following graduation.
- Have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale (or the equivalent) overall.

Applicants do not have to be a current RMA member, but they must join (free) and remain a member to receive and renew their scholarship.

RMA employees and their dependents are ineligible to apply. Others ineligible to participate include current members of the Board of Directors of RMA and the RMA Foundation and their families.

Thank you for your interest in the program.
